Our 11th Annual Success Celebration on June 9th, 2019 was a big success. We did our event in a much larger scale this time and many new donor families came to know about us. Multiple media channels including Radio and TV covered our program and telecasted it.

Mr. Patnaik has a great reputation for standing for good causes and all of his movies are message oriented. We all thank him for his support and looking forward to working with him.

Dear Volunteers, Donors, Sponsors, Supporters, Well-wishers, Critics, Social Media Followers, Partner Organizations, and our Amazing

We got an award from the largest NRI Telugu Association, Telugu Association of North America (TANA) at their biannual convention in Washington, DC. The award is given for the amazing work we all are doing through TeluguPeople Foundation.

We all can proudly say that every student we are helping can directly or indirectly influence and bring change in the lives of another 100 people in the short, medium and long terms. We need to reach out to the lowest segments of our society and help them grow in their lives.

To keep up with this growth, we need more hands, more volunteers and leaders. If you have passion and compassion, and have at least 5 hours of time every week to spend for the organization, please let us know and be a leader, or a volunteer.

As an organization, TeluguPeople Foundation has to cover a lot of areas right from marketing, media, promotion, social media activities, fund raising activities, donor management, student monitoring and mentoring, application process, accounting, systems and data maintenance, volunteer recruitment and what not.

You can work in your own specialization, and area, for the TeluguPeople Foundation. All we need is dedication and Commitment from you.

By working with a non-profit organization, you will get connected with many people in the community, and your communication skills will improve, your leadership skills will improve. These skills can directly and indirectly can help you succeed in your professional and business life.

Why I volunteer for TPF

A good education is the foundation for a better future - this is my rational to connect with TeluguPeople Foundation's cause. I have seen people divided by social status, caste etc., but this is one of a kind organization that believes in "organic growth" which takes the vision a long way.

I am Mom of 2 beautiful girls, work in the IT field, also a budding entrepreneur, live in New Jersey with my husband and kids.

I was born and raised in Hyderabad, blessed with parents who believe that education plays a vital role in shaping a person's life. All I heard them say is: Study as much as you want, however hard it takes and we will stand by you to realize your dreams. That's the inspiration I grew up.

My Mom is a teacher at a Government aided school. During my childhood, every visit to her school made me realize how brutal life can be for some.

I have met bright kids who dropped out of school and chose or forced to work for financially supporting their families at such tender ages.

There were many others who start their day as house maids before they could start their day at school, bright kids who could not realize their dreams as they do not have enough financial support.

On a personal level, I am proud to belong to a family who has gone through such rough phases during their childhood, and today un an established company which provides employment opportunities to various talented people in electronics domain. That is the power of education I have witnessed the closest.

As a family we do whatever little possible from our end, however I felt there needs to be a bigger platform to connect with the community at large.

The more I learn about number of life's transformed by TPF, the more I believe I have made the right choice to volunteer for the cause.
